SUMMARY

Product Designer with 5+ years crafting high-impact, consumer-facing digital experiences across AI and multi-platform products.

Known for simplifying complex workflows into intuitive, elegant interfaces, with a strong focus on interaction design, visual polish, and end-to-end product thinking.

WORK EXPERIENCE

SigIQ.ai — Lead Product Designer, EverTutor

Dec 2024 - Present

AI-powered tutoring platform delivering real-time, personalized learning experiences across classrooms

- Led end-to-end design of a real-time AI tutor experience, translating complex pedagogical systems into intuitive, responsive interfaces used by thousands of students daily.
- Designed a scalable content creation system that simplified complex authoring workflows into an intuitive interface, reducing creation time from ~100 hours to ~4 hours while maintaining instructional quality.
- Defined and shipped the end-to-end experience for EverTutor Live, scaling from prototype to production and supporting 1,000s of students daily, applying principles of Bloom's 2 Sigma to enable personalized learning at scale.
- Designed multimodal interaction patterns (voice, input, visual guidance) to support diverse learning behaviors, improving engagement and enabling more natural, adaptive user interactions.
- Leading design of next-generation real-time adaptive tutoring systems, enabling dynamic personalization based on student behavior and interaction patterns.
- Improved onboarding conversion for a GRE prep platform called "Berkeley Prep" from 14% to 26% (~85% increase) by redesigning the end-to-end user flow and validating changes through A/B testing.
- Increased feature-level conversion from 20% to 45% (~2.25x) by designing targeted landing pages for Berkeley Prep by collaborating with growth teams on acquisition experiments.
- Refined interaction details and visual systems to ensure a polished, cohesive experience across devices.

Stressie — Founding Product Designer

May 2024 - Dec 2024

Stress management platform for enterprises, incubated at Harvard Innovation Labs and piloted with Amazon

- Redesigned the core product experience based on pilot feedback from enterprise partners, increasing daily active engagement from 17% to 56% by introducing a new design system and end-to-end user journey.
- Partnered with founders to design and launch the marketing website, improving product clarity and driving average session engagement to 4m 20s across users.
- Led product experience across all touchpoints, including product, web, email, and physical collateral, engaging 2,000+ users through events such as TechCrunch 2024 and Breakbulk Americas.

ShopTrade — Product Designer

Jul 2021 - Jul 2022

Design consultancy delivering B2B product design solutions across multiple industries

- Led design engagements across multiple B2B SaaS products, increasing usability scores from 32.7 to 83.2 through structured usability testing, heuristic evaluation, and iterative product improvements.
- Partnered with clients and cross-functional stakeholders to redesign hiring and workflow systems, improving candidate retention by 80% and streamlining recruitment processes.

UT Austin Sustainability Department — User Researcher

Aug 2023 – Dec 2023

Focused on improving sustainable procurement and disposal practices across university operations

- Improved procurement and disposal workflows in sub-$10M construction projects by identifying gaps in warranty claim processes through stakeholder interviews.
- Developed a strategy to reduce onsite carbon emissions by 50% and minimize waste from furniture installation and disposal, partnering with 6 sustainability experts to drive environmentally efficient procurement practices.
